The Pastor's Desk

It is good to be home. I had a wonderful trip, pilgrimage and spiritual renewal in Israel. My health was not as lucky while away though it has improved as the days go by. It was good to hear that Fr. Frank's style, humor and homilies were well received.

I am not sure if you had the chance to look at my blog of the journey? It was a great way of letting many know at the same time and it is a written memory too. The blog is still active and is the following: <http://mafavero.blogspot.com>

During this coming time of Lent let us try to take time in our busy lives to spiritually renew ourselves as we prepare for Easter. The word Lent (or Lenten) is derived from the Old English lencten, which means, "spring" a time associated with new life and renewal. Just as in nature, the transformation from winter to spring is not instantaneous, so our conversion and growth in the life of Christ requires work and time. This coming week we begin Lent with our Ash Wednesday mass at 7:00 p.m. and on Friday at 6:00 p.m. is a simple Lenten supper with Stations of the Cross to follow at 7:00 p.m. It would be great to see some of you come for the supper and stations.

Fr. Mike

After the lull—the whirlwind

Things looked quiet on site for the first two weeks of February. The painters were followed by the floor grinder/polisher, and during those times no one else could work inside. Outdoors, the landscapers began installing the topsoil. This week the interior is abuzz with activity. The whole nave and hall floor area is covered with the cedar which is being first-coated with the clear finish for the interior wood, while the finished boards are being installed in the sanctuary: 20 foot high clear cedar 1X4. When that's done the exterior boards will be first and second-coated, then installed. The bathroom cabinets and fixtures are being installed, the sacristy cabinets are in, multi-purpose room storage cabinets go in next. The kitchen range hood is in, and the heating and ventilation units are being installed: carried up the nifty extension stair-ladder that drops down from the mechanical room entry.

Outside, the prefinished Hardi-panels are being applied, the extension to the overhang above the main entry is being finished, and the irrigation system pipes are laid in the rain gardens, the lawn area, and the long buffer strip north of the parking lot. Meanwhile off-site, the landscapers are mixing the topsoil to the proper specifications: mainly by adding sand and compost as they screen the soil. The clear cedar decking will soon be delivered and installed.

The Worship and Decor Advisory Committee has decided on the chairs, and their recommendation has been approved, the order placed. See pictures and details on the bulletin board downstairs. Likewise for the dividers. Since the dividers are a unique design, we have only approximations of what they will look like: a model from our Architect, who designed them, felt samples to show the colour scheme, and photos of an actual frame. See pictures and details on the bulletin board downstairs.

Library Books: In preparation for the move to our new Church site on Townsend Road, our Education Advisory Committee is going through the books and materials in our current library in order to ensure that we will have a quality library that parishioners will be able to make use of to assist in the guidance of their spiritual needs. In order to achieve this goal we will slowly downsize our collection so we can update material. The books that we believe need to be updated will be left on a table in the church hall for you to go through to assist us in determining if and why they should be in the new library. Please check week to week for any changes.

The 2011 tax receipts are at the entrance of the church filed in alphabetical order; take it home please.

2012 Collection Envelopes

Please take yours today on your way out. We need the space.

For those who are using the direct deposit, extra envelope sets for the Sanctioned Collections are available at the door. Please write your name on the envelope as the number is different to the number assigned to you. As well special envelopes for the church building fund are available at the door.

Attention: Please make sure to write your name on the envelopes, also on the church fund envelopes, so that we know it's you and a tax receipt can be issued at the end of the year. Do NOT use last year's envelopes anymore. Thank you.

Those who would like to get envelopes for the coming year can take one of the blank ones (without an address). Or, sign the PAD agreement (Pre-Authorized Donations). They are located at the entrance of our church. A tax receipt will be issued for either method at the end of the year.

If someone is missing their envelopes please let me know. Thanks Rita
